MS No 7390

Room 2A

dharmapadavatthu nissya

(2)

Handwritten text in a cursive script, likely a historical document or manuscript. The text is written in a dark ink on aged, slightly discolored paper. The script is dense and fills most of the page. There are several large, dark ink blotches or holes visible, particularly in the center and towards the right side, which may be due to damage or intentional markings. The text appears to be in a historical language, possibly a form of Urdu or Persian, given the style of the script and the use of certain characters like 'O' and 'K'. The overall appearance is that of an old, well-used document.

Handwritten text in the top right corner, possibly a date or page number.

Main body of handwritten text in a cursive script, likely Persian or Urdu. The text is arranged in approximately 10 horizontal lines across the page. There are several dark ink blotches or holes visible, particularly in the middle section of the text.

Handwritten text in a cursive script, likely a historical document or manuscript. The text is written in a dark ink on aged, slightly discolored paper. The script is dense and fills most of the page, with some lines showing signs of fading or wear. The text appears to be a continuous narrative or record, possibly related to a legal or administrative matter, given the formal nature of the handwriting and the presence of some specific terms or phrases that are difficult to decipher due to the cursive style. The document is oriented horizontally and shows signs of age, including some staining and a small dark spot near the center.

Handwritten text in the top right corner, possibly a title or reference.

Main body of handwritten text in Arabic script, consisting of approximately 10 lines. The script is dense and cursive, typical of historical manuscripts. There are two large dark circular marks, possibly holes or ink blots, on the right side of the page.

Handwritten marginal note in the top right corner.

Main body of handwritten text in a cursive script, spanning multiple lines across the page.
